*Sister Helen Prejean has been instrumental in sparking national dialogue on the death penalty and helping to shape the Catholic Church's newly vigorous opposition to state executions. Sister Helen is a member of the Congregation of St. Joseph. After witnessing the execution of death row inmate Patrick Sonnier at Angola, she wrote a book about the experience. The result was Dead Man Walking: An Eyewitness Account of the Death Penalty in the United States. It became a movie in 1995 starring Susan Sarandon and Sean Penn. Sister Helen has continued to write books and fight against the death penalty.*
