

APRIL 9 SERVICE, MISSIONS AND PRIVILEGE

Theological Tools for Encountering Inequality

The Fourth Annual Youth Ministry Symposium at Church Divinity School of the Pacific focuses on the challenges young people face when they become aware of their own economic, racial, gender, and political privilege in the context of mission trips and service projects. You'll go home from the day with new tools and resources to help your youth and your congregation as a whole discuss and reflect upon the ways that mission trips and service projects can raise difficult issues of inequality and racism, and ways in which our faith and the teachings of Jesus can help us respond. Co-sponsored by Church Divinity School of the Pacific and the Episcopal Diocese of California.

Cost: $25, including lunch and materials

Location: CDSP, 2451 Ridge Rd, Berkeley

Time: 9:30 registration, program 10 am-4 pm

Questions? call@cdsp.edu

Church Divinity School of the Pacific

develop vocabulary
to talk about
privilege in the congregation

practice activities
and skill building
with other youth
ministers and
formation leaders

reflect together on what will work in your context

learn how to support youth and adults in their questioning
about faith and just relationships

REGISTRATION:

<http://cdsp.edu/center-for-anglican-learning-and-leadership/on-campus-courses/>